

At the German Centre of Gerontology (DZA), the Research Data Centre (FDZ-DZA) has the following position available starting October 1, 2024:

1 Student Assistant (m/f/d/n.a.)
(10 hours/week, permanent)

We are looking for support with the following tasks:

- Data documentation and evaluation, as well as creating Scientific Use Files (using Stata)
- Publications and reporting
- Literature research and management using Endnote
- The employee will be continuously involved in new projects, perform varied tasks, and will be integrated into the respective work according to their interests and abilities.

Your profile should include the following criteria:

- Interest in current research and scientific methodology, with a focus on aging and life course research, as well as methodological questions
- Studies in sociology, social sciences, psychology, gerontology, or related fields
- Basic knowledge of empirical social research methods and common social science survey and analysis techniques
- Very good knowledge of Stata and/or other statistical software (e.g., SPSS, MPlus, R)
- Experience with literature research
- Ability and willingness to work independently and goal-oriented
- Good English language skills, both written and spoken

We offer:

- Insight and participation in current research topics and socially relevant work
- A respectful and supportive working environment in a small team
- The compatibility of work and private life through flexible working time models and the possibility of partial mobile work (up to 50% of the individually agreed working hours)
- A conveniently located workplace in Berlin (Platz der Luftbrücke)

The DZA is a research institute funded by the Federal Ministry for Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth, working in the field of social and behavioral science gerontology.

Information about the DZA and the Research Data Centre can be found at www.dza.de and www.fdz-dza.de.

Compensation is based on the collective agreement for student employees at universities in the state of Berlin (TV Stud III) from June 25, 2018.

For further information, please contact Nicole Hameister (nicole.hameister@dza.de) or Stefan Stuth (stefan.stuth@dza.de).

We look forward to receiving your application (please without a photo) by email (to fdz@dza.de) by November 5th, 2024!

Nicole Hameister & Stefan Stuth
Research Data Centre of the German Centre of Gerontology
Manfred-von-Richthofen-Str. 2
12101 Berlin